

Online seminar:

Baltic Sea Science Synthesized –

Time to Take Evidence-based Actions for the Well-being of the Sea and People

16th of June 2020 at 12:00–14:15 (UTC+3)

Agenda

Time
11.45	Webinar opens for participants to join
12:00	Welcome! Project Coordinators from the Finnish Environment Institute Soile Oinonen (BONUS ROSEMARIE), Vivi Fleming (BONUS DESTONY) and Kristian Meissner (BONUS FUMARI)
12:05	Webinar’s house rules
12:10	Why synthesis?
12:20	What was synthesized in the projects and how this was done? BONUS FUMARI : Marine monitoring BONUS ROSEMARIE : Ecosystem services, valuation methods, human health BONUS DESTONY : Decision support tools
12:50	What was found? Project highlights
13:30	Where are the knowledge gaps? What do the projects recommend in their Policy Briefs?
13:40	Discussion and policy briefing: How these syntheses can help eg. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National Marine Strategies • Maritime Spatial Planning • HELCOM Baltic Sea Action • Sustainable Development Goals
14:00–14:15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Summary of the webinar: graphical notes by Tussitaikurit • Closing of the webinar • (with possibility to continue discussion and pose extra questions)

